AlphaMundi Foundation Board of Directors welcomes Sarah Schwimmer

May 6th, 2021: The AlphaMundi Foundation Board of Directors is pleased to welcome Sarah Schwimmer as a new member who will officially join in late Q2 2021. Ms. Schwimmer is currently the Director for Business Development at Living Goods and most recently was with the United Nations Foundation, where she oversaw the institution's fundraising efforts with foundation and bi/multilateral donors. She has also served at Rare, World Wildlife Fund and Innovations for Poverty Action. The Board is excited to welcome Ms. Schwimmer and leverage her experience in designing, implementing, and managing resource development strategies with government donors, philanthropic and corporate foundations, and high net worth individuals.

"The Foundation is thrilled to welcome Sarah to our Board of Directors as we continue to identify innovative new partnerships that will help us further scale our impact." – Christine Roddy, Executive Director

"I am delighted to join the AlphaMundi Foundation Board, particularly at this time of global challenges when the promise and potential of social enterprises are clearer than ever. I look forward to partnering with the Board and team to identify ways we can further unlock this potential." - Sarah Schwimmer

About the AlphaMundi Foundation

The AlphaMundi Foundation is a Washington, DC based nonprofit with a mission to catalyze and scale investment in social enterprises that seek to improve the lives of the poor. The Foundation pursues this mission vis-à-vis three primary activities:

- (1) Providing targeted pre- and post-investment technical assistance to social enterprises with a business model central to one or more of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs);
- (2) Supporting impact measurement and management efforts of social enterprises; and
- (3) Furthering the field of impact investing through knowledge sharing, best practice dissemination and public advocacy, with an emphasis on gender lens investing.
